Additional Information:
	Anne Frank: A History for Today, was a huge community project in which this Site Coordinator played an active role in planning, volunteering as a docent, and hosting supporting events. This took some activity away from direct Site Prof Dev opportunities. The Anne Frank exhibit drew over 35,000 people from the NE FL/south GA areas. The Site provided Sign Language services for the select days of the exhibit. As well.
